Provides a broad framework for engaging with ideas relevant to ancient Greek and Roman science, medicine, and technology.

Love is one and love is all we need. This book argues against the traditional theological view that God's love differs from human love. If God is love and love is one, we will find God embodied in all kinds of genuine love experiences by analyzing Karl Rahner's theology of love. The author explores how God penetrates and embraces the whole of reality, suggesting implications for Christian spirituality and spiritual direction.
